

Cambodia Visa

Most of us will apply for on-arrival visas when we fly into Siem Reap. We will bring your visa fee (US$30) and passport photos, which we will take at the second Orientation in April. We will each fill out the visa-on-arrival form at Siem Reap Airport when we arrive.

Our two Thai citizens (Jui and Poom) may stay in Cambodia for 14 days without a visa, as per special agreement between the two countries.

Here is a list of country passport holders that cannot apply visa upon arrival in Cambodia: Afghanistan, Algeria, Bangladesh, Iran, Iraq, Pakistan, Saudi Arabia, Sri Lanka, and Sudan.
